DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

- Group I, claims 1, 3-5, 9-11, 21, 23, 24 and 25 drawn to a method of treating an inflammatory disease, an inflammatory disorder or a cancer selected from the list disclosed therein.
- Group II, claims 12-15, drawn to a method for inhibiting cancer cell growth.
- Group III, claim 32, drawn to a combination of two pharmaceutical compositions.

The groups of inventions listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The special technical feature of the claimed invention is use of a combination therapy in a method to treat inflammatory disease comprising administering curcumin and NSAID. This special technical feature does not define a contribution over prior art as evidenced by J. Nat. Cancer Inst., 2002, 94(4), 252-266, to Thun et al (hereinafter "Thun", cited by the Applicants and submitted by the Applicants in the Instant Application). Thun teaches a combination of sulindac and curcumin for treating colon cancer. There is lack of unity a posteriori. Therefore, the claims lack novel technical feature and are not so linked as to form an invention.

Election of Species

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

A. Specific inflammatory disease, disorder or a cancer. Applicants must elect a single disease. For example, disease listed on claims 1, 21, 23, and 32.

B. NSAID. Applicants must elect a single NSAID. For example, NSAID listed on claims 1, 3, 10, 11, 12 and 32.

Applicants are required to elect a single disease, and a single NSAID commensurate with the elected invention. For example, claim 1 indicates that the disease is selected from a group consisting of the list disclosed therein. Should Applicants elect Group I, Applicants should then identify the one single disease, and single NSAID by their proper chemical name and by their proper chemical structure and any other identifiers, and indicate which claims encompass the elected species.

Applicants are required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowed generic claim.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the species listed above are not regarded as being of similar nature because each disease has distinct pathologic features.

Applicant are advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention or species.

Should applicants traverse on the ground that the inventions have unity of invention (37 CFR 1.475(a)), applicant must provide reasons in support thereof. Applicants may submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. Where such evidence or admission is provided by applicant, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Time for Reply

Applicant is reminded that 1-month (not less than 30 days) shortened statutory period will be set for reply when a written requirement is made without an action on the merits. This period may be extended under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). Such action will not be an "action on the merits" for purposes of the second action final program. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Correction of Inventorship

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
